

UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

THE CENTRE FOR CULTURE IDENTITY
AND EDUCATION
PRESENTS

A FILM SCREENING OF METROPOLE

METROPOLE is a feature documentary and visual essay on the everyday dimensions of social class in urban North America. The film is a visual exploration of the daily flux of life, labor, and leisure in a global city over one 24-hour period, as experienced by persons from across the social spectrum.

Wednesday, March 12th, 2008
Scarfe Building, Room 2415
12:15-2:00PM